About Rebecca

Rebecca Eisenberg has been a certified speech Language Pathologist since 2002. She graduated with a Bachelor’s in science in Communication Disorders from Penn State University and a Masters of Science in Speech Language Pathology from Teachers College, Columbia University.

Her work experience includes clinics, public schools, private schools, day care centers, day habilitation programs, group homes and home visits. Currently, Rebecca is part of the assistive technology team at Westchester for Human Development (WIHD) in Valhalla, NY and specializes in the field of augmentative and alternative communication.

Rebecca has taught graduate classes at Teachers College Columbia University, NYU, and Mercy College. She also teaches courses throughout the year at local colleges in the field of speech language pathology. Rebecca is also a Bluebee Pals Ambassador and writes app reviews to help facilitate language and learning with this interactive toy.
She has multiple games and a workbook published by Super Duper Publications. She is co-author of a children’s book titled, The Monkey Balloon published in 2014 and the sequel, A Tale of The Monkey Balloon which was released February 6th, 2018. My Second Year of Kindergarten, which was released in 2018 won a Mom’s Choice Award and Creative Child’s Book Award. Her most recent children’s book Bluebee Pals Techie Rangers was published in August 2019 and received a PALS award. Rebecca has always loved and treasured children’s books, specifically those that embed a meaningful lesson in the story.

Her passion lies in finding those moments to connect with children through storytelling. Rebecca began her blog www.languageduringmealtime.com to create a resource for parents to help make mealtime an enriched learning experience with children’s literature.

- Storytime with Language enriched activities for preschool and elementary aged children
- Events for Special Needs Parents focusing on speech, language and literacy
- Providing speech and language tips and carryover activities for children’s books
Certified speech language pathologist and children's book author, Becca Eisenberg brings you creative professionals from the language learning and children's education field. With these ideas, parents can help their children with special needs improve language and reading abilities. Sponsorship opportunities are available!

Some of my podcast guests have included: Elly Swartz, Alyson Gerber, Toni Buzzeo, Maria Dismondy, John Parra, Nicole Panteleakos, Andrew Kolb and much more! I have also interviewed a variety of professionals in the mental health field such as Janet Sasson Edgette, Nina G. and Autism Advocate Julie Hornok who gave valuable advice for parents.

Rebecca’s articles have appeared in

- ASHASphere Blog
- The Friendship Circle of Michigan
- Autism Parenting Magazine
- Parenting Special Needs Magazine
- Autism Notebook Magazine
- Brightly
- ADDitude Magazine
- NY Parenting
- Inside Press

Contact

✉️ becca@gravitybread.com
🌐 languageduringmealtime.com